

Downtown Business District:

Any property on the road frontage and the interior area is considered the downtown business district and are subject to this district's requirements.